

Interhouse competitions

Debating

Last week, the interhouse debating competition took place, with Loomis winning against Fenwick, who then went on to compete against Orvis in the final debate. Orvis, being the winners of last year's competition, took on Loomis and aimed for a win once again.

Congratulations to Orvis on their winning streak and well done to all the houses for putting up a good battle.

Singing

On Thursday 6th of February, SLC hosted the annual inter-boarding house competition. Great excitement was in the air as the evening drew closer. For the past month, the students were practising every free moment to ensure that they got to walk away as the winners of the evening.

This year, all the houses had the opportunity to vote for their favourite song to be chosen as the set song. In the end the chosen set song was 'Stand by me' by Ben E King.

On the evening, the judges were surprised by beautiful and interesting renditions of this old favourite. In the end, Ken Shuter house was crowned the winner and set a high expectation for years to come. Well done to all the houses.

Chess

On Thursday 6th of February interhouse chess took place and was played in good spirit. Each house had to enter 6 players of whom two had to be juniors. Orvis came well prepared as they won most of their games. A special mention of Junior Netshituni from Orvis who won all his games on the day. Rajveer Gohil from Fenwick was seen as a new young talent and will certainly be a future force to be reckoned with. We await Loomis to make their move! 1st – Orvis, 2nd – Fenwick, 3rd – Loomis.

Squash

On Tuesday, 4th February, the College's squash players went head-to-head in the 2019 interhouse squash tournament in the High Performance Centre. The mini tournament was well supported by the boarders, and players enjoyed the big crowds and noisy support. Players were taught how to score a match, building their knowledge of the game. Some really good squash was played and it is exciting to see the sport continue to grow at the College amongst the pupil body. Well done to winners Fenwick, who were followed very closely by Orvis, with Loomis in third.

SLC hosted the Small Schools Athletics meeting at the University of Limpopo on Tuesday. Seven schools participated in the event and it was another wonderful day of athletics, with no fewer than 22 records broken on the day.

The following athletes won trophies:

Junior Victrix Ludorum - Ramagohlo Malatji (Southern Cross)

Junior Victor Ludorum - Devon Coad (Stanford Lake College)

Senior Victrix Ludorum - Alichia Inama (Southern Cross)

Senior Victor Ludorum - Rofhiwa Nevhutalu (Stanford Lake College)

The winning school was Stanford Lake College with a total of 741 points.

In second place was PEPPS with 495 points and in third place was Ridge-way College with 454 points.

A good day on the track
